THE OLD AGE SECURITY PROGRAM

The Old Age Security program is an integral part of the Canadian social security system. The program was established by Parliament under the Old Age Security Act in December, 1951, to provide a basic level of income for older Canadians and is financed from general tax revenues.

The Act provided for a monthly pension, effective January, 1952, to all individuals who satisfied age and residence requirements.

A full or partial Old Age Security pension is payable at age 65 to persons who fulfill the residence requirements, and are Canadian citizens or legally resident in Canada when their applications are approved.

In 1967, a Guaranteed Income Supplement was introduced under the Old Age Security Act, to provide a monthly supplementary income to Old Age Security pensioners with little or no other income.

There are two rates for Guaranteed Income Supplement. One applies to single pensioners which includes, widowed, divorced or separated persons as well as individuals who have never married. It also includes married pensioners whose spouses are not in receipt of either the basic Old Age Security pension or the Spouse's Allowance.

The second rate for Guaranteed Income Supplement applies to married couples and couples who have lived in a conjugal relationship for at least one year, publicly representing themselves as man and wife where both spouses are pensioners.

LE PROGRAMME DE LA SÉCURITÉ DE LA VIEILLESSE

Le programme de la Sécurité de la vieillesse fait partie intégrante du système canadien de sécurité sociale. Il a été établi par le Parlement en vertu de la Loi sur la sécurité de la vieillesse en décembre 1951 pour assurer un revenu de base aux personnes âgées du Canada et est financé à partir des recettes fiscales générales.

La Loi a institué à partir de janvier 1952 une pension mensuelle versée à toutes les personnes qui respectaient les exigences relatives à l'âge et à la résidence.

Une pension de la Sécurité de la vieillesse, intégrale ou partielle, est versée à l'âge de 65 ans aux personnes qui respectent les conditions relatives à la résidence et qui sont des citoyens canadiens ou qui résident légalement au Canada au moment où leur demande est approuvée.

En 1967, on a introduit un Supplément de revenu garanti aux termes de la Loi sur la sécurité de la vieillesse pour assurer un revenu supplémentaire mensuel aux pensionnés de la Sécurité de la vieillesse qui ont un revenu faible ou nul.

Le Supplément de revenu garanti prévoit deux taux. L'un s'applique aux pensionnés seuls, ce qui comprend les personnes veuves, divorcées ou séparées ainsi que les personnes qui n'ont jamais été mariées. Cela comprend aussi les pensionnés mariés dont les conjoints ne reçoivent pas la pension de base de la Sécurité de la vieillesse ou l'Allocation au conjoint.

Le deuxième taux du Supplément de revenu garanti s'applique aux couples mariés et aux couples qui ont vécu maritalement pendant au moins un an et qui se sont présentés comme mari et femme si les deux conjoints sont des pensionnés.

Effective October 1, 1975, a Spouse's Allowance program was introduced to provide monthly payment for persons aged 60 to 64 years and were spouses of Old Age Security pensioners whose yearly income was less than a prescribed amount. Residence rules for eligibility were identical to those for Old Age Security pensions.

Effective November 1, 1978, the Spouse's Allowance was extended to the surviving spouse of a pensioner for 6 months after the month of the death of the pensioner and effective November 1, 1979, it was extended to a pensioner's surviving spouse aged 60 to 64 years; as well, surviving spouses of deceased pensioners whose benefits had been suspended and who had not reached age 65 were reinstated. As of September 1, 1985, Spouse's Allowances were extended to all widowed persons aged 60 to 64 years.

Between 1979 and 1986, Canada has entered into International Agreements on Social Security with certain countries. These reciprocal agreements are intended to provide coverage under the Old Age Security program for all persons who migrate between Canada and those countries provided that such persons meet the eligibility requirements established under the agreements.

Le 1er octobre 1975, un programme d'Allocation au conjoint a été introduit pour assurer un paiement mensuel aux personnes âgées de 60 à 64 ans qui étaient des conjoints de pensionnés de la Sécurité de la vieillesse dont le revenu annuel était inférieur à un montant prescrit. Les exigences relatives à la résidence étaient les mêmes que celles pour les pensions de la Sécurité de la vieillesse.

Le 1er novembre 1978, l'Allocation au conjoint a été étendue au conjoint survivant d'un pensionné pendant six mois après le mois du décès du pensionné et, le 1er novembre 1979, l'allocation a été étendue au conjoint survivant d'un pensionné âgé de 60 à 64 ans; de même, les conjoints survivants de pensionnés décédés dont les prestations avaient été suspendues et qui n'avaient pas encore atteint l'âge de 65 ans ont pu faire rétablir leurs prestations. Le 1er septembre 1985, l'Allocation au conjoint a été étendue à tous les veufs et veuves âgés de 60 à 64 ans.

Entre 1979 et 1986, le Canada a conclu des accords internationaux sur la sécurité sociale avec certains pays. Ces accords réciproques visent à assurer la protection en vertu du programme de la Sécurité de la vieillesse à toutes les personnes qui se sont déplacées entre le Canada et ces pays pourvu que ces personnes respectent les conditions d'admissibilité établies en vertu des accords.

SOURCES AND LIMITATIONS OF DATA

Source of Data

Data were obtained from computer printouts received from each Regional Office and developed in cooperation with, and tabulated by Supply and Services Canada; from tables supplied by the Financial Directorate and statistical tables prepared by Income Security Programs Branch of Health and Welfare Canada.

These printouts and tables have also been used to prepare the following publications:

- Monthly Statistics - Income Security Programs

- Old Age Security Annual Report

Covered Population

Most of the persons over age 65 living in Canada meet the residency requirements for the Old Age Security pension. Persons living abroad who also meet the residency requirements qualify for the Old Age Security pension.

In addition, recipients of Old Age Security pension who have limited or no other income may be eligible for a Guaranteed Income Supplement.

PROVENANCE ET LIMITES DES DONNÉES

Provenance des données

Les données proviennent d'états mécanographiques reçus de chaque bureau régional et produits en collaboration avec Approvisionnements et Services Canada, et tabulés par ce même Ministère; de tableaux obtenus de la Direction des services financiers; et de tableaux statistiques préparés par la Direction générale des programmes de la sécurité du revenu de Santé et Bien-être social Canada.

Ces états et tableaux ont aussi servi à la préparation des publications suivantes :

- Statistiques mensuelles - Programmes de la sécurité du revenu

- Rapport annuel sur la Sécurité de la vieillesse

Population représentée

La plupart des personnes de plus de 65 ans qui habitent au Canada respectent les exigences relatives à la résidence pour recevoir la pension de la Sécurité de la vieillesse. Les personnes qui habitent à l'étranger et qui respectent les exigences relatives à la résidence ont droit à la pension de la Sécurité de la vieillesse.

De plus, les bénéficiaires de la pension de la Sécurité de la vieillesse qui ont un revenu faible ou nul peuvent avoir droit au Supplément de revenu garanti.

The Spouse's Allowance is paid only to persons who meet the prescribed requirements and are between 60 and 65 years of age.

Homogeneity of Data

January 1970 was chosen as the starting point for the monthly data in these historical series due to lack of disaggregation of data prior to that date. The starting point for the yearly figures varies for the same reason.

Since 1979, the method of compiling statistics for Old Age Security have been modified to increase the number of statistical information available. This explains why for some tables statistics are compiled from 1979.

The accounts for persons receiving Canadian Old Age Security benefits under International Agreements on Social Security are all maintained in a centralized area (in Ottawa) and the statistical information on those benefits are all listed under "International Operations". (See also "province" under "definitions of terms").

Rounding of data

Due to rounding, data may not add to the totals shown.

L'Allocation au conjoint est payée seulement aux personnes qui respectent les exigences prescrites et qui ont de 60 à 65 ans.

Homogénéité des données

Vu la dispersion des données avant janvier 1970, les renseignements chronologiques mensuels fournis dans ce document sont présentés à compter de cette date-là. La date à laquelle les renseignements chronologiques annuels sont présentés varie pour la même raison.

Depuis 1979, la méthode visant à réunir les statistiques pour la Sécurité de la vieillesse a été modifiée pour augmenter le nombre de renseignements statistiques disponibles. Cela explique pourquoi, pour certains tableaux, des statistiques sont réunies depuis 1979.

Tous les comptes de personnes qui reçoivent des prestations canadiennes de la Sécurité de la vieillesse en vertu d'accords internationaux sur la sécurité sociale sont tenus dans un secteur centralisé (à Ottawa) et tous les renseignements statistiques sur ces prestations figurent sous la rubrique "Opérations internationales". (Voir aussi le terme "province" dans la section "Définitions de termes".)

Arrondissement des données

Les nombres étant arrondis, l'addition des données ne correspond pas toujours aux totaux indiqués.

DEFINITIONS OF TERMS

Benefit Rates

The Old Age Security Act provides for the escalation of benefits each quarter in accordance with increases in the cost of living as measured by the Consumer Price Index.

The periodic amendments in the Old Age Security Act have also led to special increases in the benefits through the years. Table 6 shows the maximum benefit rates from 1952 to 1986.

Guaranteed Income Supplement

- Single pensioner

This group refers to pensioners who are single, separated, divorced or widowed and in receipt of an Old Age Security pension and the Guaranteed Income Supplement, and where a maximum or a partial Guaranteed Income Supplement is paid at the "single" rate.
